

Appointment of ANDRE MOUSSEAU

Group Chief Financial Officer, Sagicor Financial Corporation Limited

Sagicor Financial Corporation Limited is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Andre Mousseau to the post of Group Chief Financial Officer, effective February 1, 2019.

The post of Group Chief Financial Officer is a key strategic role and has oversight of and primary responsibility for the planning, implementation and management of the financial activities of the Sagicor Group of Companies. This includes economic strategy, business planning, budgeting and forecasting, investments, acquisitions and engaging with capital markets.

Mr. Mousseau brings a wealth of experience to the Sagicor Group, with a career that bears a watermark of success across the financial services industry. He was previously a partner with Alignvest Private Capital, and before that a Portfolio Manager for the Long-Term Equities Group at the Ontario Teachers' Pension Plan (OTPP), the largest single-profession pension plan in Canada.

Prior to joining OTPP, Mr. Mousseau served as a Principal at EdgeStone Capital Partners, one of Canada's leading independent private equity managers where he worked on a variety of successful investments, portfolio company initiatives and exits across multiple industries.

Mr. Mousseau serves as a Director of Edgewood Health Network, a portfolio investment of Alignvest. His Directorship also spanned the boards of Impark Corp., one of North America's largest parking management providers, Premier Lotteries, OTPP's holding company for lottery management investments, and Aurigen Reinsurance, a Bermuda-based life reinsurance provider focused on the reinsurance of life insurance policies of North American residents. He was also an alternate board member of Camelot Group PLC, the operator of the UK National Lottery.

Mr. Mousseau possesses a Master of Business Administration from the Richard Ivey School of Business, University of Western Ontario, and an undergraduate degree in Economics from McGill University.

Please join us as we congratulate him on this new appointment.
